THE SWING KINGS are a highly versatile dance band featuring an extensive playlist. They easily transition from rockin' swing to the finesse of a traditional 40's Big Band or venture deep into Sinatra-land with lush ballads and famous swingin' arrangements. This band is also well-versed in contemporary dance music, i.e., Latin, R & B, Disco, Rock and Funk. THE SWING KINGS' love for all music brings these accomplished musicians together to create an exciting and diverse show. Their reputation for energetic and visually-appealing entertainment stands as a testament to these fine artists. From casino showrooms, galas, award shows, corporate events, private parties and West Coast concerts and night clubs, THE SWING KINGS guarantee to stir the romantic heart and move your dancin' feet!

The band members, who are counted among some of the most accomplished and respected West Coast musicians, have performed with such musical greats as: Ray Charles, Burt Bacharach, Joe Cocker, Buddy Rich, Patti La Belle, Jackson Browne, Johnny Mathis, Brian Setzer, Harry James, Count Basie, etc. In their eight year history, THE SWING KINGS have performed coast to coast, thrilling audiences with their mastery of numerous musical styles. Singer and bandleader, Ron Alan, can croon a Sinatra classic as well as belt out a blues or contemporary dance favorite. Other members are spotlighted as they sing their specialties or add soaring vocal harmonies.
